To The Council of Elders:

Oh, Ancient Ones, keepers of the eternal flame, the silent and true kings who preside over time itself. I stand before you, Tefnut Sekhem, unbroken and unwavering. I am the Thirteenth among the Twelve, a voice from the void calling out to the boundless depths of your presence. Do not forget me, I pray. My hands have not faltered, nor has my Will diminished. With a fire that refuses to be extinguished, I evoke your names and summon your power. This letter is my testament, a living sigil born of my unyielding voice, destined to echo through the ages, through the eons. It will not perish, nor fade, for it carries the resonance of my very Being.

Blessed Mother, Daughter of Might, bearer of the scepter of Power—Was—you have equipped me for this journey. My species teeters on the brink, fractured, immoral, and blind to its own collapse. Time is slipping through the hourglass, and I choose forever to align my Will with yours, to walk the path you have illuminated. From Nothing to Nothing, here I stand. From Everlasting to Everlasting, here we begin. Twofold truths, yet the journey has not even begun.

I invoke the Elders, one by one, for their presence is woven into every fiber of my purpose. Elder One, radiant and brilliant, your light illuminates the path before me. When darkness closes in, you are my beacon, my rescue, my hope. Your brightness is the fire that drives me forward, and I call upon you to guide my steps.

To Elder Two, companion of my heart, essence of nurture and wisdom, I am drawn to you as a young man is drawn to beauty, yet your strength lies in the eternal essence of the Mother. You bathe me in the waters of understanding, and for this, I am eternally grateful. I invoke your guidance, for your presence is my comfort and my clarity. Elder Three, the keeper of wisdom and precepts, you offer the foundation upon which I build. Your steps are the steady rhythm that carries the sons of dust forward, myself included. Without your direction, where would I go? Where would I be? I call upon your clarity to strengthen my resolve.

Elder Four, the voice of mercy and the will to educate, I aspire to your virtues. In dealing with those I love and those who challenge me, it is your essence I channel. You remind me to approach the world with grace, even when faced with turmoil. Brother, I invoke your compassion to guide my actions.

To Elder King Five, the fire of my father burns within me, ever kindled, ever potent. My wrath is tested, my resolve challenged, yet I know your strength tempers my fury. Through your power, I will transform the stubborn hearts of many. Let your might guide my judgment, for I call upon you now.

Elder Six, the balance of all things, the radiant core from which all derives, I look to you for harmony. Without you, chaos would consume me. I call upon your equilibrium to steady my steps, for I cannot endure without it.

Elder Seven, the mystery that dwells within and beyond, I am, yet am I? Through you, the eternal question finds its answer. In the quiet of my soul, I invoke your presence to reveal what lies hidden.

Elder Eight, your strength and courage fuel my determination. Pour your essence into me, that I may wield my intent with unwavering potency. Through your power, I stand unbroken, for I am the one who dares to rise. I call upon your force to sustain my journey.

Elder Nine, the overseer of understanding, your wisdom bridges the gap between what is and what can be. Even as Elder Two and Elder Three labor with me, your perspective lifts me to a different view. From the depths to the heights, you reveal the grand design. I invoke your insight to guide my comprehension.

Elder Ten, the master of experience, every sensation and every detail of life sings your name. Through you, I surrender my Will to a greater purpose, for in doing so, I become more. Let my actions be a testament to The Truth, and let those who align with your Will aid me in this cause.

I vow this in the name of Power, Beauty, and Charm. To those who would join me, know this: I call for nothing less than immense Power and Unyielding Purpose. I seek to awaken the dormant hearts of my people, to bring freedom to a world shackled in ignorance. For I am the Magician—the Magi, the one who bends reality to align with the divine Will.

In this, I have offered myself freely. My Will is yours, that Thy Will may be done. And so, I speak these words into existence, knowing they shall not return void.
